Garda Vetting Guidelines : Relevant work

It is a criminal offence to allow anyone to engage in ministry with children or vulnerable persons, without being vetted.

The law states that vetting is required for any:

- work or activity which is carried out by a person, a necessary and regular part of which consists mainly of the person having access to, or contact with, children (and/or vulnerable persons).
- Any work or activity as a minister or priest or any other person engaged in the advancement of religious beliefs, to children (and vulnerable persons) unless such work or activity is merely incidental to the advancement of religious beliefs to persons who are not children (or vulnerable persons).

Therefore, anyone who is 18 or over and involved in ministry, employed/contracted or volunteering who has any contact with children and/or vulnerable persons, which is more than incidental must be vetted. Those who are aged 16 years and under 18 years may be vetted, but this can only be carried out with the written consent of their parent/guardian and the young person themselves.

For other Church personnel whose contact with children and/or vulnerable persons is incidental, vetting is not required.

Persons who typically need to be vetted.

- Priests/Deacons.
- Religious, seminarians and novices.
- Parish Safeguarding Representatives.
- Sacristans
- Leaders of Church activities/groups that involve children: e.g. youth choir leaders, prayer groups, etc. Where a choir is a mix of adults and children, those responsible for the children should be vetted.
- Anybody working with children in youth programmes: e.g. John Paul II awards etc.
- Those who train children: e.g. trainers of altar servers, etc.
- Extraordinary Ministers who bring the Eucharist to homes, hospitals, care centres.
- Church Staff/volunteers who lead prayer groups/minister to children or vulnerable adults outside of the church eg. School retreats, Lourdes Pilgrimage etc.
- Any other person acting on behalf of the Church who is responsible for the care and supervision of children or vulnerable adults.

Examples of Roles that typically WILL NOT require vetting:

- Parish secretaries, Collectors, Car park attendants.
- Those present in the Sacristy who do not have an official role with children or vulnerable adults. (Note: However, these adults should never be left unsupervised with children or vulnerable adults);
- Readers of the Word.
- Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion who only distribute the Eucharist within the main body of the church during public Mass or other liturgical celebrations;
- Other roles whose contact with children or vulnerable adults is merely incidental while they are carrying out their ministry, work, activities with those who are not children or vulnerable adults.

For more information, please see our Interim Diocesan Garda Vetting Policy on our website <https://www.waterfordlismore.ie/safeguarding-children/> or contact the Waterford and Lismore Diocesan Safeguarding Office 051-874199 or the Diocesan Garda Vetting Administrator on 051-874463

Applicants must be re-vetted every three years.
